Questionnaire for Lead Poisoning in Pregnant Women

Medicaid/Insurance Number:
_County of Residence:
ly have or had an elevated lead level in the past year?
urs a week or more, in a house built one?
Do you or anyone in your household work in an occupation where lead is used?
*See Work/Job Source listing below and circle all that apply.
d?
*See Traditional Medicines and Cosmetics listings below and circle all that apply.

WORK/JOB SOURCE	HOBBIES	TRADITIONAL MEDICINES AND COSMETICS
Plumbers, pipe fitters	Glazed pottery making	Asian-Chuifong tokuwan
Brass/copper foundry	Target shooting at firing range	Pay-loo-ah, ghassard, bali goli
Lead Miners	Reloading cartridges and lead shot	Mexican-Azarcon and greta (also Lead smelters and refiners	Stained glass making	known as liga, Maria Lusia)
Demolition workers	Molding fishing sinkers, bullets	Kandu
Auto repair	Car or boat repair	Saott, cebagin
Glass manufacturers	Home remodeling	Alacon, coral and rueda
Plastics manufacturers	Furniture refinishing	Middle Eastern – alkohl, kohl
Radiator repair
Gas station attendants	ENVIRONMENTAL
Firing range instructors	Lead sealed plumbing
Policemen	Lead painted homes
Battery manufacturers	Mini Blinds
Steel welders/cutters	Soil/dust near industry/roadways
Construction workers Shipbuilders	Jewelry (metal based)
Bridge reconstruction workers	Ceramic ware/pottery
Solid waste production	Lead sealed cans (imported)
Chemical and chemical preparation
Printers

If you checked one or more of the above, please ask your doctor about a Blood Lead Test. Office staff will review this form with you and clarify any questions you may have.

General Information: Lead can be passed to your unborn baby.