

Where should I go when my child is sick?

Primary Care Provider

Call or see your primary care provider for regular medical problems, well child checks, immunizations, and most urgent needs.

- Allergic reaction with no trouble breathing
- Allergies
- Asthma attack with mild symptoms
- Behavior concern
- Bloody nose that won't stop
- Broken bone (bone not deformed or sticking out of skin)
- Cough, cold, congestion
- Constipation
- Cuts and bruises
- Diarrhea
- Earaches or tugging
- Fainting but acting normally
- Fever in children older than 30 days
- Headaches (mild)
- Head injury if behaving normally
- Health advice
- Hives with no trouble breathing
- Bug bite/sting with no trouble breathing
- Medication refills or changes
- Minor burns
- Object stuck in nose or ear
- Pain when peeing
- Pink eye
- Rash
- Routine tests/labs
- Seizure that stops on its own
- Sinus infection
- Sore throat
- Sports injuries
- Sprains and strains
- Stomach pain
- Swallowed objects with no trouble breathing
- Vaccines/immunizations
- Vomiting
- Yearly physical

Urgent Care

Go to Urgent Care for things that need to be treated soon, but your provider is not available.

Emergency Room or Call 911

Go to the Emergency Room or Call 911 for serious life or limb threatening conditions.

- Allergic reaction with trouble breathing or vomiting
- Asthma attack with trouble breathing after treatment
- Breathing trouble
bluer lips/fingers
- Broken bone (bone deformed or coming out of skin)
- Burns (any serious, electrical, or acid burns)
- Concern for abuse or neglect
- Cuts that won't stop bleeding
- Dehydration (dry mouth, no tears, no wet diapers for 18 hours)
- Difficulty responding or waking up
- Eye injury
- Fever in children younger than 30 days old
- Head injury with persistent vomiting or behavior change
- Headache (severe) or migraine with neck pain
- Hives with trouble breathing
- Ingestions (Call Poison Control first: 800.222.1222)
- Bug bite/sting with trouble breathing
- Numbness, paralysis, weakness or vision loss
- Object stuck in skin or eye (don't pull it out)
- Seizures that won't stop or new seizure
- Slurred speech or trouble speaking
- Suicide attempt or threat to self or others
- Swallowed battery
- Swallowed any object with trouble breathing